

Welcome to DFW

Experience & Enjoy
Dallas/Fort Worth

●●● freemanleonard
creative. marketing. solutions.

Experience

KLYDE WARREN PARK - DALLAS DOWNTOWN

Building a five-acre deck park over a recessed eight-lane freeway took an imaginative and hard-working team of Dallas leaders with a clear vision. The park creates green space “out of thin air” and connects the vibrant Uptown neighborhood with the Dallas Arts District and all of downtown. With plenty of activities daily, it’s the perfect oasis in the middle of Dallas. Not to mention all of the amazing food trucks that surround it!

DALLAS ARBORETUM AND BOTANICAL GARDEN - DALLAS EAST

Located along the shore of White Rock Lake, the Arboretum is among the most beautiful botanical gardens in the nation with over 66 acres of spectacular gardens. During the holidays, it features an outdoor Victorian-style exhibit of the 12 Days of Christmas. And don’t miss the concert series during the spring and summer months!

“ Sign up for the Segway Tour of downtown Dallas at segwaytoursofdallas.com. It’s a fun ride, and great way to see some interesting parts of downtown Dallas most people who live here don’t even know about. ”

- Kathy

KIMBELL ART MUSEUM - FORT WORTH

Fort Worth’s Kimbell Art Museum is known for its renowned Asian- and European-focused art collection and its architecture.

REUNION TOWER - DALLAS WEST END

The observation deck and restaurant at the top of Reunion Tower, sometimes referred to as “The Ball,” is where you can enjoy an incredible 360-degree view of the Dallas skyline.

Art, History & Culture

“ Fall is my favorite time of year to go to Klyde Warren Park. I make sure to stop by Abe’s Flavor Flave food truck for tacos before I pick a place to sit and and watch people and pups enjoy the action. ”

- Jerry

DALLAS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA - DALLAS ARTS DISTRICT

Founded in 1900, the Dallas Symphony Orchestra calls the beautiful Meyerson Symphony Center home. The orchestra has evolved in both size and stature, and it has had multiple RCA recordings, multiple prestigious nominations, and 26 world-class conductors since its beginning. Enjoy classical pieces old and new, and other great performances at all the venues located in the Dallas Arts District.

SIXTH FLOOR MUSEUM - DALLAS WEST END

Located at Dealey Plaza, this museum examines the life, death, and legacy of President John F. Kennedy. Nearby, just a 3-minute walk away, you will also find the JFK Memorial.

FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS

Nothing embodies Western heritage better than the Fort Worth Stockyards. From the original brick walkways to the wooden corrals, every inch of the Stockyards tells the history of Texas’ famous livestock industry. Experience saloons, bars, and restaurants. Especially Billy Bob’s Texas, the world’s largest honky-tonk, which features an indoor rodeo arena for bull riding, Texas-sized dance floor, and live music events.

NATIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR MUSEUM - ARLINGTON

This 101,000-square-foot architectural marvel designed by Rafael Viñoly honors the Americans who have received the nation’s highest military award for valor.

Experience

“ The George Bush Library has a very moving exhibit on the 9/11 tragedy. ”
- Kurt

GEORGE W. BUSH PRESIDENTIAL CENTER - DALLAS SMU

Here you can get an in-depth and interactive view of eight years of presidential history. As America's 13th presidential library and museum, it is home to the archives of the Bush Administration as well as several permanent and traveling exhibits – there is even a replica of the Oval Office! After visiting the museum, take a stroll through the 15-acre Native Texas Park or enjoy a meal at Cafe 43.

DALLAS MUSEUM OF ART - DALLAS ARTS DISTRICT

The DMA is among the 10 largest museums in the U.S. Its collection encompasses more than 24,000 works from around the globe and spans 5,000 years of history and a wide range of world cultures.

NASHER SCULPTURE CENTER - DALLAS ARTS DISTRICT

Ray and Patsy Nasher's collection of modern and contemporary sculptures was sought after by museums throughout the world, but they chose to house it right here in the heart of the Dallas Arts District.

GAYLORD TEXAN RESORT - GRAPEVINE

Overlooking Grapevine Lake, the massive Gaylord Texan is a resort destination known for stunning indoor atriums, seasonal events, and family-friendly attractions. From the popular ICE! exhibit during the holidays to dining, shopping, and live entertainment, there's a lot to explore.”

Art, History & Culture

OLD CITY PARK - DALLAS DOWNTOWN

Old City Park is home to the largest and finest collection of 19th century pioneer and Victorian structures in Texas. Stroll the grounds and discover what life was like for ordinary Texans over 100 years ago, and visit during Halloween for ghost tours.

PEROT MUSEUM OF NATURE AND SCIENCE - VICTORY PARK

At the Perot Museum of Nature and Science, you can race a T. rex, challenge friends in robot competitions, explore the astonishing links between dinosaurs and modern-day birds, experience a simulated earthquake, journey through the universe, and test what it means to “be human.” Everything from dinosaurs to DNA to diamonds can be experienced throughout the five levels of hands-on discovery and adventure to inspire the life-long learner in all of us.

THE JOULE HOTEL - DALLAS DOWNTOWN

The Joule is a revitalized 1920s neo-gothic landmark building in the heart of Dallas' business district. With dramatic art installations, unique retail boutiques, and a world-class spa, The Joule is the perfect place to stay, play, and shop. Iconic luxury stores Neiman Marcus and Forty Five Ten are just a short walk from the hotel.

GRAPEVINE VINTAGE RAILROAD - GRAPEVINE

Step back in time with a nostalgic ride in luxurious Victorian coaches while traveling the Historic Cotton Belt Route from Grapevine to the Fort Worth Stockyards. Four 1925 day coaches and two 1927 open-air touring coaches have been restored to their full Victorian-era glory.

“ The Grapevine Vintage Railroad is a lot of fun. It goes to the Fort Worth Stockyards, which has great shopping, especially for Western style. Some days, there are even steers passing by on the street! ”
- Donna

Experience

AT&T STADIUM - ARLINGTON

Home of the Dallas Cowboys, this $1.2 billion stadium is a destination all its own. DFW fans refer to it fondly as “Jerry World” after Cowboys owner Jerry Jones. The stadium holds around 85,000 fans and is the fourth largest in the NFL. Plan a tour to get a full experience.

INWOOD THEATER - PARK CITIES

The Inwood Theater is a Dallas legend, with a distinctive selection of independent and foreign films to popular films from Hollywood. You’ll love watching a film in the “couch room,” which is a full-sized theater featuring Lovesac bean bags and couches rather than the standard cinema seating. After your movie you can stop at the Inwood Lounge in the lobby for one of the best martinis in Dallas.

BILLY BOB’S TEXAS - FORT WORTH

Built in 1910 as an open-air barn and opened as Billy Bob’s in the 1980s, the 100,000-square-foot entertainment center has more than 30 bars, an indoor rodeo arena, country music’s biggest stars, real pro bull riding, and a Texas-sized dance floor. It’s a Texas icon and a true Texas cultural experience.

“NASCAR is always an exciting shock to the senses.”

- Tom

TEXAS MOTOR SPEEDWAY - FORT WORTH

Nicknamed “The Great American Speedway,” this racetrack facility is one of the largest motorsports venues in the world, capable of hosting over 200,000 spectators. If you’re a NASCAR fan, this is the ultimate experience.

TEXAS LIVE! - ARLINGTON

From Cowboys Hall of Famer Troy Aikman, Troy’s is an iconic addition to Texas Live! The venue offers a unique blend of live music, gourmet food, and signature cocktails to create a social experience for all. In addition to the rustic interior and the lush outdoor garden patio, there is an indoor/outdoor middle stage so you can enjoy live entertainment seven days a week no matter where you are in the venue.

Sports & Entertainment

VICTORY PARK - DALLAS SOUTH VICTORY

Victory Park features American Airlines Center, House of Blues, the Perot Museum of Nature and Science, and much more. Visit Sweet Tooth Hotel for the photo opportunity of a lifetime. Or, stop for a bite at the legendary BuzzBrews for their round-the-clock breakfast.

DALLAS WORLD AQUARIUM - DALLAS WEST END

You’ll find much more than fish here! While the building itself has a unique history and structure, the Aquarium features animals from many countries, five of which the Aquarium has a conservation initiative with. From sloths to manta rays, there is so much to take in.

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS - ARLINGTON

Six Flags Over Texas is a 212-acre amusement park located in Arlington, Texas, east of Fort Worth and west of Dallas. It is the first amusement park in the Six Flags chain and features themed areas and attractions. You will also want to check out some of the seasonal events such as Fright Nights in October.

THE STAR - FRISCO

The Star is the 91-acre practice facility of the Dallas Cowboys World Headquarters. Developed as a first-of-its-kind partnership between the City of Frisco and Frisco ISD, The Star gives fans the opportunity to connect with the Dallas Cowboys in ways they have never imagined. Here you can enjoy tours, shopping, and events in addition to viewing the Cowboys and Texas high school football practices.

THE KATY TRAIL - DALLAS UPTOWN

Following the path of the old Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad, the Katy Trail is now a jogging, walking, in-line skating, and bicycling path through the Uptown and Oak Lawn areas of Dallas. When you’re ready to rest from exercising, step over to the Katy Trail Ice House for a beer and one of the best burgers in Dallas.

COSM - THE COLONY

Large, curved screens wrap around a two-story space featuring games and other events, plus food, drinks, and a full bar.

Experience

DOLLY PYTHON - DALLAS HASKELL AVENUE & BISHOP ARTS DISTRICT

From 1970s fashion sewing guides, to tarot card readings, to a fabulous selection of vintage clothing, Dolly Python is a palace for the eclectic. It's a maze-like boutique seemingly stretched across time and space with something for all.

THE FARMERS MARKET - DALLAS DOWNTOWN

Since 1941, the Dallas Farmers Market has been filled with wholesome produce. The market has turned into a hub for farm-fresh vegetables, unique shopping, and more. Open daily and a "happening" on the weekends. Dine, shop, and be entertained.

“ Dolly Python transported me back into another time! There were some incredible vintage brands and so many cowboy boots. ”
- Julie

SIXTY VINES - PLANO & UPTOWN DALLAS

Great food and great wine go hand-in-hand, and Sixty Vines boasts 60 wines on tap! With wines to perfectly complement each dish on the menu, here you will experience a better way to enjoy wine.

EMPORIUM PIES - BISHOP ARTS DISTRICT

This unique bakery features homemade pies with fun names like Drop Dead Gourdgeous (for pumpkin spice) and Lord of the Pies (apple cinnamon streusel). You'll know you've found Emporium on your walk through Bishop Arts District when you smell fresh pies from the sidewalk!

Shops & Eats

“ We like going to Psychedelic Robot, the immersive, interactive art experience, then drinks and dinner right there at Sixty Vines. ”
- Lora

GRANDSCAPE – THE COLONY

This retail and entertainment development was named The Most Innovative in the World and home to the first Scheels location in Texas.

THE PGA OF AMERICA HEADQUARTERS - FRISCO

The PGA of America headquarters in Frisco created the Omni PGA Frisco Resort & Spa, offering some of the best golf experiences in the world.

LEGACY WEST - PLANO

Legacy West is a lush popular destination lined with coveted retail, dining, residential, hotel, and office spaces. You'll find something for all ages and tastes at this modern hub of retail and restaurants.

KNOX HENDERSON - DALLAS

Nestled between Uptown, Lower Greenville Avenue, and the town of Highland Park lies the trendy Knox Henderson neighborhood, a pedestrian-friendly area named for the two primary roads that connect over U.S. Highway 75. Filled with shops, bars, and eateries that radiates out in all directions, the neighborhood manages to maintain a cozy vibe despite its central Dallas location.

COLLEGE SPORTS: SMU, TCU & UNT

From TCU in Fort Worth to SMU in Dallas to UNT in Denton, DFW offers ample opportunities to experience the excitement of college sports. Catch a game on campus and enjoy the energy, traditions, and tailgating that make Saturdays in Texas special.

Experience

{NEIGHBORHOOD} - BISHOP ARTS DISTRICT

The hip Bishop Arts District is known for its diverse nightlife, chic independent fashion stores, and colorful street art. Dining choices range from Texas-style BBQ to Vietnamese pho, while relaxed bars pour everything from cocktails to house-brewed cider.

WEST VILLAGE

West Village is often referred to as “Uptown’s Downtown.” It’s one of Dallas’ most walkable shopping, dining, residential, and entertainment districts. Here, you have direct access to the DART Rail, the Historic McKinney Avenue Trolley, and the Katy Trail. Complete with events and even a movie theater!

“ I always stop at Emporium Pies in Bishop Arts for a slice on my way to The Texas Theatre. The pie is always delicious, and there are so many beautiful murals. I think I have a picture of a different one from every time I’ve gone! ”

- Charlie

H-MART - CARROLLTON & PLANO

If you are looking for ingredients and inspiration for Eastern cuisine, this is your market for goods and good eats. Find snacks and home goods from international places and unique fresh produce to complete your meal.

EATALY - DALLAS

A culinary delight that brings Italy to Texas. This concept started in Italy and has become an international phenomenon, allowing visitors to shop and experience Italian cuisine and culture close to home. Located at NorthPark Center.

Shops & Eats

NORTHPARK CENTER - DALLAS

With over 235 unique retailers, restaurants, and legendary brands, NorthPark Center offers a luxury shopping experience. Making museum-quality art available for everyday enjoyment is a NorthPark tradition that adds a unique element to the atmosphere of this community gathering place.

UPTOWN DALLAS

Visit Magnolias Sous Le Pont to grab one of their delicious lattes on your way to the Crescent Court Hotel. Or visit Saint Ann Restaurant and Bar in the nearby Harwood District. Saint Ann is consistently voted as having the “Best Patio in Dallas” by D Magazine and “Best Outdoor Dining in Dallas” by Open Table.

“ Café Modern in Fort Worth is a fun place for brunch or a wine dinner! I love having little get-togethers there! ”

- Lisa

BOB’S CHOPHOUSE - PLANO, DALLAS & GRAPEVINE

Since 1993, the name “Bob’s” has been synonymous in Dallas with a best-in-class steakhouse experience. Over the years, Bob’s has built upon the reputation they earned at their original Dallas location by opening restaurants across the nation that proudly offer the best cuts of meat available to guests, no matter where they call home.

MULE ALLEY · FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS

In the heart of the historic Stockyards, Mule Alley combines Western heritage with modern flair, featuring a mix of restaurants, shops, and live entertainment in beautifully restored brick buildings.

Experience

CAFE' MODERN - FORT WORTH

Café Modern, led by Executive Chef Jett Mora, provides guests with warm hospitality, creative cuisine, and seasonal menus rooted in Texas ingredients. The menus feature comfort food with global influences and a beverage program showcasing local spirits. Café Modern offers a spectacular outdoor patio.

“ Whenever my friend comes in town, we enjoy the patio at Joe T. Garcia’s Mexican Restaurant – a Fort Worth icon since 1935, then we can head to the stockyards. ”

- Jordan

DELUCCA GAUCHO PIZZA - OAK LAWN & PLANO

At Delucca, you will find an elegant neighborhood pizzeria where you can enjoy the exciting theater of an open kitchen with its wood-fired oven and Bossa Nova music. Stop by and unwind over terrific wines, classic cocktails, and the most delicious pizzas!

TRINITY GROVES - DALLAS

A diverse variety of restaurants can be found in this one destination along the banks of the Trinity River, including spaces where young chefs can test their newest restaurant concepts with mentoring from the likes of restaurateur Phil Romano.

HIGHLAND PARK VILLAGE - DALLAS

Highland Park Village was the first self-contained shopping center in America and was declared a national landmark in 2000. Its 50+ world-class boutiques include Tom Ford, Valentino, Balenciaga, Dior, Harry Winston, Rag & Bone, Christian Louboutin, Carolina Herrera, Ralph Lauren, and more.

Shops & Eats

NEIMAN MARCUS - DALLAS DOWNTOWN

The flagship store of Dallas’ most famous luxury retailer is downtown at Main and Ervay, where it has hosted fashion greats from around the globe since 1907.

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN CULTURAL DISTRICT - MCKINNEY

Historic Downtown McKinney is a true destination. Stroll the square and see a show, taste a new wine, enjoy the live music, or just find a place on a restaurant or winery patio and people-watch! This atmosphere, created by the blend of new and old, historic and trend-setting, makes the downtown square the perfect spot for daytime festivals and nightlife activities.

HISTORIC DISTRICT - GRAPEVINE

Historic Grapevine, centrally located between Dallas and Fort Worth, is called the Christmas Capital of Texas with over 1,400 events in 40 days and over one million lights to enjoy during the holiday season. Enjoy great attractions for the entire family with its collection of charming shops, restaurants, and art galleries, not to mention the wines and tasting rooms.

ROOFTOP BAR & PODS AT HOTEL VIN · GRAPEVINE

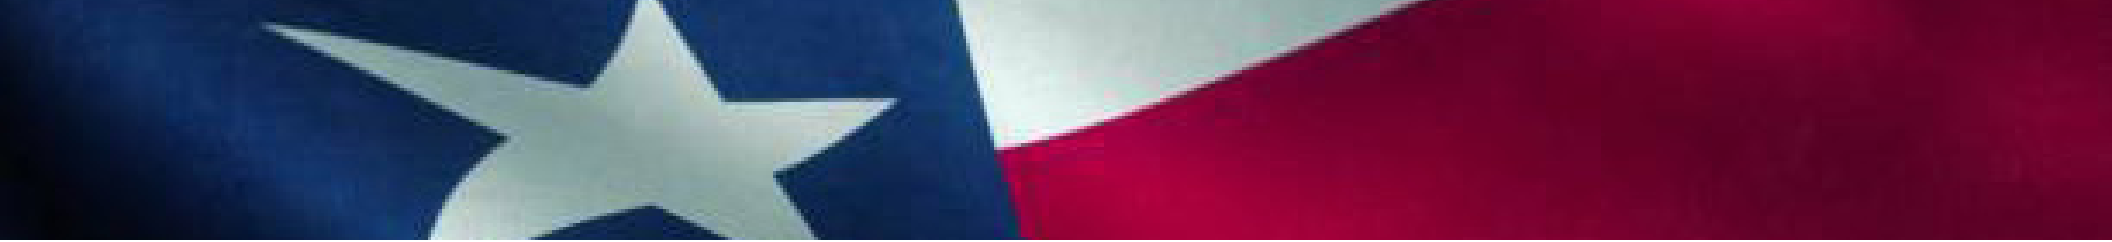

In the heart of Grapevine’s Main Street, Hotel Vin’s rooftop is a stylish spot to unwind with skyline views, craft cocktails, and cozy private pods –perfect for a relaxed night out or catching a Texas sunset.

CATTLEMEN’S STEAK HOUSE · FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS

A true Texas classic, Cattlemen’s Steak house has been serving legendary steaks in the Stockyards since 1947. Known for its old-school charm and hearty portions, it’s a must-visit for an authentic Fort Worth dining experience – featured on the show Landman!

CLEARFORK · FORT WORTH

The Shops at Clearfork offer a mix of upscale shopping, dining, and entertainment along the Trinity River, for a go-to destination from brunch to boutique browsing.

10 Great

1. GEO-DECK AT REUNION TOWER

Put aside your fear of heights here because there's nothing like seeing this panoramic view of Dallas from 470 feet up.

2. DEEP ELLUM STREET ART

Three large installations of the Traveling Man can be spotted in Deep Ellum. Artist Brad Oldham created the figures, which are beloved mascots of the neighborhood. You will also find beautiful murals made by local artists throughout the area.

3. WHITE ROCK LAKE AND DALLAS ARBORETUM

These two oases in the middle of the city are a stunning testament to Dallas' love of landscapes and outdoor beauty.

4. TRUCK YARD

Everything about the Truck Yard bar is so hip and edgy, it will convince all your internet friends that you are a food truck connoisseur.

5. KLYDE WARREN PARK

This very well could be the most innovative park in all of Dallas and is almost always full of people, pets, and great "happenings."

Dallas Instagram Spots

6. GALLERY ROOFTOP AT THE CANVAS HOTEL

On the roof of the Canvas Hotel is a chic bar with trendy food, drinks, a swimming pool, and a stunning view for a selfie with downtown Dallas.

7. THE EYE AT THE JOULE HOTEL

It might give you the heebie-jeebies, but it's worth it. Find the eyeball in the garden across the street from The Joule.

8. MARGARET HUNT HILL BRIDGE

It's easily one of the most stunning structures in Dallas. Whether you are driving on the bridge or hanging out nearby at Trinity Groves, it is always a breathtaking view.

9. PEGASUS SCULPTURES

Images of a Pegasus appear all over Dallas, and the most eye-catching are the massive, neon-red sculptures atop the Magnolia Building and in front of the Omni Dallas Hotel.

10. PIONEER PLAZA

Take a picture with the commemorative bronze cattle drive sculpture in the Convention District of downtown Dallas.

This guide lists some of our favorite destinations and activities, but click the two resources below for up-to-date recommendations throughout DFW!

DALLAS LOVE LIST FORT WORTH LOVE LIST